The Royal Bafokeng Nation owns the land and mineral rights to the rich platinum fields between Rustenburg and Sun City in the North West Province of South Africa. The Royal Bafokeng has an exceptional record regarding the welfare of its nation and the proceeds from its platinum mining, and other, interests have been invested exclusively in the development of Phokeng (the capital of the Royal Bafokeng nation) with a world class stadium, hotels, schools, hospitals, housing for all, social services etc. The king, Kgosi Leruo Molotlegi, has been instrumental in achieving the above and has personally taken an interest in The SV Kearney Education Trust.
